receipt, recording, organisation, collation, storage, updating or modification, retrieval, alteration, consultation, use, dissemination, distribution, merging, linking, restriction, degradation, erasure and/or destruction of Information;

- 1.12 "Stakeholder" means any Person whose Information the Company Processes, and this may include Information pertaining to the Company's employees, candidates for employment, customers, suppliers, officers, business associates, partners, and the like.

2. Background to POPIA

- 2.1 POPIA is South Africa's primary data protection law.
- 2.2 The purpose of POPIA is to promote the protection of Information that is Processed by any Person, by prescribing certain minimum requirements for the Processing of Information.
- 2.3 These minimum requirements must be met in order for a Person to Process Information and include those requirements set forth in clause 4 of this Policy.
- 2.4 It is the policy of the Company that it will comply with the minimum requirements set forth in clause 4 of this Policy at all times.

3. Purpose of this Policy and Application

- 3.1 From time to time in the conduct of its Business, the Company will come into possession of and will concomitantly Process the Information of its Stakeholders.
- 3.2 The purpose of this Policy is to record how the Company will Process the Information of its Stakeholders and, in doing so, comply with the minimum requirements set forth in clause 4 of this Policy.
- 3.3 This policy applies to the Company's business operations and activities in South Africa and to the Company's Stakeholders.

4. Minimum Requirements for Processing Information

In order for the Company to Process Information in a manner which is consistent with POPIA, the Company must:

- 4.1 Process the Information lawfully and in a reasonable manner that does not infringe the right to privacy of the Person whose Information is being Processed;

- 4.2 Process the Information for a specific, explicitly defined and lawful purpose related to a function or activity of the Company;
- 4.3 Process the Information only if, given the purpose for which it is Processed, it is adequate, relevant and not excessive and if:
 - 4.3.1 the Person whose Information will be Processed has consented to its Information being Processed;
 - 4.3.2 it is necessary to Process the Information to carry out actions for the conclusion or performance of a contract to which the Person whose Information will be Processed is a party; or
 - 4.3.3 it is necessary to Process the Information to comply with an obligation imposed by law on the Company or to protect a legitimate interest of the Company and/or the Person whose Information will be Processed;
- 4.4 take reasonable steps to ensure that the Person whose Information will be Processed is aware of the Information that will be Processed, the source from which that Information will be collected and the purpose for which that Information will be Processed;
- 4.5 take reasonable steps to ensure that the Information that is Processed is complete, accurate, not misleading and updated where necessary;
- 4.6 take reasonable technical and organisational measures to secure the integrity and confidentiality of Information that is Processed so as to prevent the loss, damage or unauthorised destruction of Information and the unlawful access to or Processing of Information; and
- 4.7 take reasonable steps to ensure that the Person whose Information will be Processed is aware of its rights in and to its Information.

5. The Purpose for Processing

- 5.1 The Company will Process Information for the purpose for which it is received by the Company, save that the Company will by means of the awareness and consent measures contemplated in this Policy, where appropriate and permissible, seek and obtain from its Stakeholders consent to a particular qualitatively and quantitatively circumscribed purpose which will facilitate the Processing by the Company of the Information.
- 5.2 Pursuant to clause 5.1, the Company will seek and obtain from its Stakeholders consent for the Company collecting Information from its Stakeholders and where necessary from any other source for the purpose of the Company conducting and furthering its business interests in general, and including, without limitation, for the purpose of executing any rights and obligations that it may have in relation to a Stakeholder or any matter in respect of which a Stakeholder and/or the Information applies, and the maintenance of reasonable, accurate and complete historical record keeping.

6. Source of Information

- 6.1 The Company will only Process Information that it receives directly from a Stakeholder, save where:
 - 6.1.1 the Information is public record or has deliberately been made public by the Stakeholder;
 - 6.1.2 the Stakeholder has consented to the collection by the Company of the Information from another source;
 - 6.1.3 the collection of Information from a source other than the Stakeholder would not prejudice a legitimate interest of the Stakeholder, is necessary to maintain or comply with an obligation imposed on the Company by law or to maintain the legitimate interests of the Company or the Information will be used for legal proceedings;
 - 6.1.4 it is not reasonably practicable in the circumstances of the particular case to collect the Information directly from a Stakeholder, or to do so would prejudice a lawful purpose of the collection, or
 - 6.1.5 it has received the consent of a Stakeholder to Process Information about that Stakeholder that it receives from another source, in which event it may Process Information about a Stakeholder that it receives from another source.

7. Awareness and Consent

- 7.1 The Company is required to ensure that its Stakeholders are aware of the purpose for which their Information is being Processed, the manner in which it will be Processed and their rights in respect thereof. The Company will do this by:
 - 7.1.1 publishing a copy of this Policy on its website:

<https://www.rockprocessing.sandvik/en/aboutthis-site/data-privacy/local-privacy-requirements/>

- (i) employment agreements;
- (ii) standard terms and conditions of trading;
- (iii) credit applications;
- (iv) quotations; and
- (v) any other contracts or agreements that the Company may enter into with its Stakeholders.

7.2 The Company will, where it is necessary or appropriate to do so, obtain the written consent of its Stakeholders to Process their Information in accordance with POPIA, inter alia, by:

7.2.1 requesting its Stakeholders to consent to the Processing by the Company of their Information;

7.2.2 requiring applicable Stakeholders to sign any one or more of the documents contemplated in clause 7.1.5 of this Policy.

7.3 The Company will, by the measure set forth in this policy, and such other reasonable aligned measures as are appropriate, pursue a policy of acquiring positive consent from its Stakeholders in terms of which they approve of the use of their information for a widened reasonable purpose, use and processing, and further processing.

7.4 In addition to the other measures contemplated in this policy, the Company will transmit to its Stakeholders appropriate communications by which means it will inform its Stakeholders of the provisions of this Policy and other related policies and by which means Stakeholders will be requested to provide affirmative consent, and where appropriate and permissible, implied and/or tacit consent to the said widened reasonable purpose, use and processing, and further processing referred to in this policy.

7.5 The Company will in addition to the measures contemplated above, cause to be displayed upon its stationery (where practicable and appropriate) and upon its website, an assortment of appropriate communications in terms of which it informs Stakeholders of the existence of this

8.3 The Company will review the Information that it Processes and stores from time to time and will destroy and/or delete any Information of its Stakeholders that is no longer required for the purpose in clause 5 of this Policy, or that it is no longer authorised or obliged to retain.

8.4 In the event that it comes to the attention of the Company that its Stakeholders 'Information has been accessed, acquired or Processed by any unauthorised person:

8.4.1 the Information Officer and/or his deputy will notify the applicable Stakeholder or Stakeholders and the Information Regulator as soon as reasonably possible; and

8.4.2 the Company will comply with such directions as the Information Regulator may prescribe.

9. Disclosure of Information

9.1 The Company will not hold its Stakeholders' Information as its own and will make no claim to ownership thereof, unless a Stakeholder agrees otherwise.

9.2 The Company will only disclose its Stakeholders' Information to those of its employees and officers who need to know for the purpose described in clause 5 above and will not disclose Information to any third party unless the consent of the applicable Stakeholder to do so has been obtained.

9.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 9.2 of this Policy, the Company may disclose its Stakeholders' Information without first obtaining consent:

9.3.1 if the Company deems it appropriate to disclose that Information to an Operator for the purpose in clause 5 of this Policy; and/or 9.3.2 if the Company is required by any applicable law or any applicable regulator to disclose that Information.

9.4 The Company will not transfer the Information of any of its Stakeholders to any third party in any country in which the Company operates, other than South Africa, unless:

9.4.1 the Company has obtained the consent of the affected Stakeholder to do so;

9.4.2 the third party has agreed to Process that Information on substantially the same terms as those recorded in this Policy and/or in any agreement entered into between the Company and the Stakeholder;

9.4.3 the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract between the Stakeholder and the Company;

9.4.4 the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in the interest of the Stakeholder between the Company and a third party; or

9.4.5 the transfer is for the benefit of the Stakeholder, and it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the consent of the Stakeholder to that transfer or, if it were reasonably practicable to obtain such consent, the Stakeholder would, in the Company's view, likely give it.

9.4.6 the transfer is for the benefit of the Stakeholder, and it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the consent of the Stakeholder to that transfer or, if it were reasonably practicable to obtain such consent, the Stakeholder would, in the Company's view, likely give it.

9.5 In the event that any of the circumstances described in clause 9.4 apply, the Company will comply with the requirements of POPIA and the Company's Intra-Group Data Transfer Agreement ("the Intra-Group Transfer Agreement"), where applicable. The latest version of the Intra-Group Transfer Agreement will be made available upon request to the Information Officer.

10. Information Quality

10.1 The Company is required to take reasonably practicable steps to ensure that the Information of its Stakeholders that it Processes is complete, accurate, not misleading and updated where necessary.

10.2 The Company will accordingly ask its Stakeholders to verify the completeness and accuracy of the Information provided by them from time to time.

11. Unsolicited Information

In the event that a Stakeholder makes Information available to the Company which is gratuitous and/or not required for the purpose referred to in clause 5, this Policy (save in respect of this clause 11) will not apply, and the Company will use its bona fide efforts to secure that Information, and proceed to delete, erase or destroy that Information as soon as practicable after its receipt.

12. Stakeholder Participation and Rights in and to its Information

12.1 Each Stakeholder, after having provided adequate proof of identity to the Company, has the right to:

12.1.1 request that the Company confirms, free of charge, whether or not it holds Information about that Stakeholder;

12.1.2 request the record of or a description of the Information that the Company holds about that Stakeholder;

12.1.3 request that the Company correct or delete any Information in its possession or under its control about the Stakeholder that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete or misleading, or to destroy or delete a record of any Information about it that the Company is no longer authorised to retain;

12.1.4 withdraw its consent for the Company to Process its Information at any time, but the withdrawal of consent will not affect:

12.1.4.1 the Processing of its Information before the withdrawal of consent;

12.1.4.2 the Processing of any of its Information that is required by the Company to comply with law and/or finalise the performance of any agreement that it has entered into with the Stakeholder concerned.

12.2 Should any Stakeholder wish to exercise any of the rights referred to above, it can do so by contacting the Information Officer who can be contacted in the manner described in clause 13 of this Policy, and the Information Officer will give effect to the Stakeholder's request or withdrawal.

13. Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer

13.1 The Company has appointed an Information Officer (Legal and Compliance Counsel) who will fulfil the duties and responsibilities set forth in Section 55 of POPIA.

13.2 The Company has appointed a Deputy Information Officer (Head of Financial and Business Control) in accordance with Section 55 of POPIA in order to facilitate the POPIA compliance activities within the Company.

13.3 The name and contact details of the Information Officer can be obtained by visiting the Company's website: <https://www.rockprocessing.sandvik/en/about-this-site/dataprivacy/local-privacy-requirements/> or by sending an email to the following email address: popia.srp@sandvik.com.

13.4 The Information Officer will be responsible for, inter alia: ensuring that the Company Processes the Information of its Stakeholders in a lawful and reasonable manner that does not unreasonably infringe its Stakeholders' right to privacy;
